The Humble
ADDRESSES

Of the Right Honourable the

Lords Spiritual and Temporal

In PARLIAMENT Assembled.

Die Veneris 17 Februarii, 1715.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

E Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, beg Leave to Return Your Majesty the Thanks of this House for Your most Gracious Speech from the Throne, and to Congratulate

Your Majesty upon the Success Your Forces have had in obliging the Pretender to Fly out of Scotland; And as we do not doubt but Your Majesty will use the most effectual Means towards Preventing the said Pretender's finding Refuge or Protection in any Country in Amity with Your Majesty, so we do Assure Your Majesty of our utmost Support and Assistance in shewing Your just Resentment against any Prince or State that shall give him Protection; And we take this Opportunity

portunity to Express the true Sense this House has of Your Majesties great Wisdom and Care of Your People, in having Resolved not only to put a Speedy but an Effectual End to this Rebellion, without having hearken'd to any Fallacious Proposals of the Rebels, which could only have tended to leave the Seeds of future Rebellions and Distractions in this Kingdom. And we do further humbly Thank Your Majesty for Your Gracious Intention to Ease Your People of any Burthen, as far as is Consistent with the Publick Safety, not doubting but, if Your Majesty judges it Necessary, You will make use of the Power already granted You ; And we do humbly Assure Your Majesty, That nothing shall be wanting on our part towards Securing, upon the most Solid and Lasting Foundations, Your Majesties Government, upon which the future Happiness and Tranquillity of these Kingdoms do's entirely Depend.

I Thank you heartily for this Dutiful and Loyal Address : I will immediately Order the most Pressing Instances to be made to all Princes and States in Amity with Me, in relation to the Pretender ; And I shall in every thing always Consult the Security and Happiness of My People.
